
PREMISES LIABILITY

U.P.S. DRIVER TAKES A METAL DOOR...IN THE SHOULDER!

CASE: STASSI V. McMASTER CARR

PLTF. ATTORNEY: Richard B. Koskoff - Larry Booth, Inc. - Torrance

FACTS: The Pltf., a 57 yr. old driver for U.P.S., was in the process of securing the rear door of his U.P.S. truck when Deft.'s employee pulled down a loading dock metal door which struck Pltf. on the shoulder. Deft. argued that Pltf. had attempted to duck under the closing roll down dock oor and therefore substantially contributed to his injury. Pltf.'s disability was caused by a long overlay from the injury.

INJURY: Soft tissue back, no disc problems or surgery.

SETTLEMENT: $800,000

Case No. SEC 46640

NORWALK
